For the last half of the week at the Auditorium theatre, The Broadway Rethey presents an entire new produc-tion, including costumes, scenery and songs, entitled "A Night On Broadsongs, entitled "A Night On Broadway." headed by those two funny nomedians, Bill Jennings and Jack Hubb, who are supported by The Hermans, a high salaried duncing team in their Vampire Dance. This act has appeared in all the leading vaudeville theatres over the Keith Big Time Cirthic. Miss Peggy Carroll will introdisplay some new and stunning gowns Mas Webb, prima donna, will be heard in selections of high class songs. Frank Tambert, tener soloist, will offer some stirring patriotic numbers to the millioner tables which classes. in the military tabloid which closes in the military tabloid which closes the performance. The feature picture for the leat half of this week will be Farle Williams in "A Mother's Sin." a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature that is a wonderful masterplece in which this great screen favorite has made a decided hit. Four shows today.

DAVIS THEATRE.

for Complete Shows Today, at 1,30 5.15. 6 and 8 p. m .- Entire Change of Programme-Three Big Features, Including William S. Hart in "The Patriot"-Special Musical Programm by the Davis 10-Piece Symphony Orchestra.

Another banner bill of photo-play features is booked to be shown at this theatre the last half of this week. The headline attraction being William S. Hart the popular star, in "The Pa-triot," a five-part drama of unusual interest, with plenty of thrills and rap d fire action. The second feature is Pauline Starke in 'The Shoes That Lanced' a five-part Triangle drama. An uglier looking set of thugs were noter posed before a conera than in this nighter. this picture, and they lend an air of realism to the feature, which with its striking sets and vigorous punch, pre-sents a vivid picture of life in the underworld The third feature is Benjamin Chapin in the fifth chapter of "The Son of Democracy," entitled "Tender Memories." This chapter of the life of Abraham Lincoln tells of the struggle Lincoln had between the of a mother who taught him peace and a people who cried for war. Current Events with all the latest news completes the programme.

POETRY

THE BRAVEST BATTLES.

The bravest battle that ever was Fought;
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not.
It was fought by the mothers of men. Nay, not with cannon or battle shot, With sword or braver pen, Nay, not with eloquent word or thought. From mouths of wonderful men.

Oh, ye with banners and battle shot!
And soldiers to shout and praise!
I tell you the kindliest victories fought
Were fought in shose silent ways.

—Joaquin Miller.

Bravely they laid their all upon the altar.

Counting as naught the sacrifice and pain.
Theirs but to do and die without a falter—

They are not lost: that only which was mortal
Lies 'neath the turf o'er arched by Southern skies;
Deathless they wait beyond the heavenly portal,
In the'r fair land where valor never dies.

In the great heart of coming genera-

But deep in a woman's walled-up heart,
Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently bore her part,
Lo, there is that battlefield.

Yet faithful still as a bridge of stars. She fights in her walled-up town, Fights on and on in the endless wars, Then silent, unseen, goes down.

THE UNKNOWN DEAD.

Above their rest there is no sound of weeping.
Only the voice of song birds thrills the air:
Unknown their graves, yet they are in God's keeping.
There are none "missing" from His tender care.

He knows each hallowed mound, and at His pleasure
Marshals the sentines of earth and sky;
O'er their repose kind Nature heaps her treasure,
Fanned by soft winds which 'round them gently sigh.

Many large undertakings have been of munitions manufacture. Among these were two new industries, the refining of copper and speiter. At Trail, British Columbia, ie being produced monthly about 360 tons of copper, 1,700 tons of lead, and 1,200 tons of zinc. In addition, plants have been organized for the manufacture of all kinds of explosives and for the manufacture of aeropianes. Another new industry established by the Imperial Muitions Board is an electric steel plant to utilize scrap metal. Franklin Square, utilize scrap metal.
